Module Two Final Project

In this module project, you return to the site and the work that you did for module one but begin assembling the sources that will allow you to deepen and expand your analysis. The sources you find will become the foundation of the archive that you will share with others in the final version of the project.

For this stage of the project you should assemble five different primary sources that will become the foundation of your archive. Your archive must include at least one of each of the following:

Textual source

Visual source

Material source

Spatial source (e.g. a plan or a map)

You should include the following metadata for each source:

Title (Official or Descriptive)

Date of creation

Place of creation

Creator (if known)

Collection location (i.e., where is the source housed today)

Due by Sunday, April 11 by 11:59 pm EST to the class blog
<https://blogs.baruch.cuny.edu/domesticatingempire/>

Please post your sources to the blog as part of a single post.

Do not post it as a link to an attachment. If you do so, you will be asked to resubmit as a post.

Please refer to the syllabus for the class policy regarding extension and late papers.
